Are you Britain's grimeiest plumber?

Last chance saloon

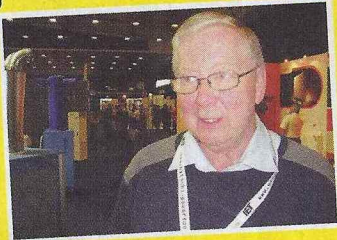

PHPI has teamed up with Big Wipes to find Britain's Grimeiest Plumber. If you make the grade, you could win a year's supply of Big Wipes 4x4, an off road experience and a cleansing spa day... not to mention T-shirts for the first 20 entries this month. This is your last chance to enter!

Big Wipes is on a mission to get tough on grime and look after the trade with its 4x4 range of industrial strength wipes. Big Wipes 4x4 contain no fewer than four powerful cleaning agents and four dermatologically tested skin conditioners – making Big

Wipes 4x4 cleaning wipes even tougher on grime and even kinder to your hands.

It's your last chance to send in a photo of yourself covered in grime and in need of some serious Big Wipes 4x4 action!

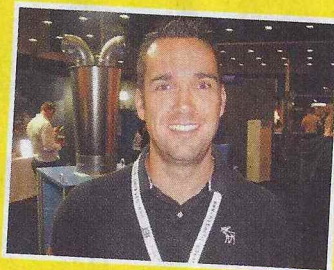

Partners in grime

Steve Hammond – SW Hammond Ltd

"I've been covered in loads of it over the years. There's been too many times. Now I send someone else in to kop the grime!"

Richard Sperke – Viking Electrical Ltd
"I was working on a rural job, fixing some pumps. I managed to fall into a cesspit. Stop laughing. It wasn't a great experience!"

Helen Garlick – Sole trader

"I've been doing a house up and I was let loose with the silicone. It went everywhere – my hands, arms and face. I'm always really messy – but I've got some Big Wipes 4x4 now!"

Karl Riches – M Riches

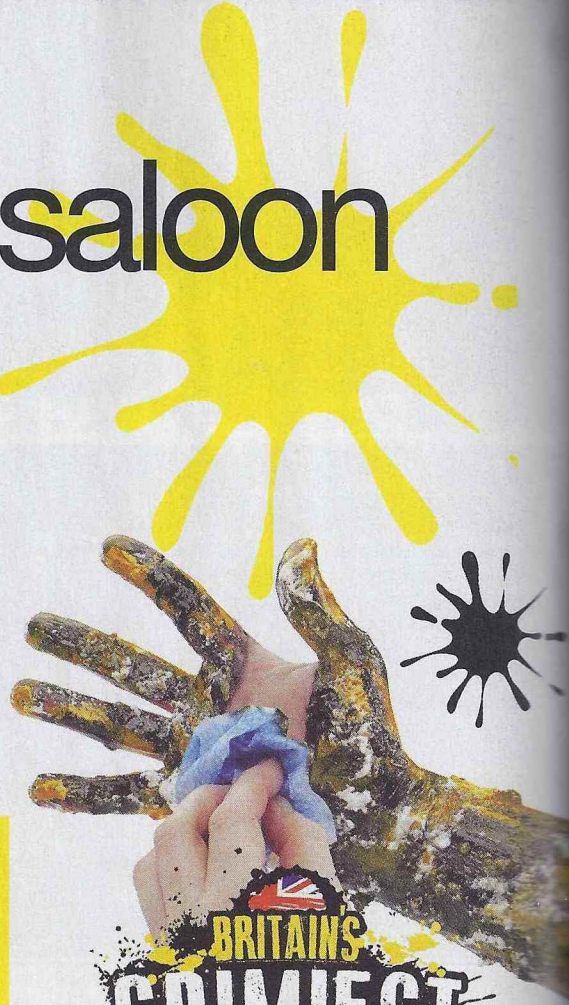

"It's got to be toilets and drains and having to clean them when they're blocked. There's nothing worse than when people have thrown food down a toilet to block it and you've got to put your arm down there to unblock it!"

This month's Grimeiest Plumber

Lee Blower

"All I'm going to say is that some days I'll go to work wearing white and I'll come home wearing black!"
