PHPI unveils the winner of Big Wipes' Britain's Grimeiest Plumber competition.

It's big prizes with Big Wipes this month as we can now reveal the winner of its Britain's Grimeiest Plumber competition, in association with PHPI.

And the lucky winner is Steve from Jobsons, who as you can see, got absolutely covered in it when he was trying to rescue a JCB from a lake! "We set about draining some water out, but the mud, sludge and everything else that gets thrown into lakes was very deep. You can see the result!" explains Steve. For his troubles he has won a year's supply of Big Wipes 4x4, an exciting (and mucky) off road 4x4 driving experience and a much-needed cleansing spa day.

Grime spree

Big Wipes is on a mission to clean up tradespeople after a hard day's graft with its 4x4 range of industrial strength wipes, which contain four powerful cleaning agents and four dermatologically tested skin conditioners.

"We've seen some really grimy entries and heard stories which make your hair stand on end," says Nigel Dibbo, Managing Director of Big Wipes. "But that's what Big Wipes 4x4 are designed for – a challenge – and Steve deserves a bit of our TLC! As busy tradespeople, your hands are your most important tools as they are your livelihood, so cleaning them effectively while still being able to care for them is extremely important."

Steve – Jobsons

"We get asked to recover all sorts of vehicles from all sorts of places but the worst one we've had in a while was a digger out of a lake. So we set about draining some water out, but the mud, sludge and everything else that gets thrown into lakes was very deep. You can see the result!"
